Third Party Designee

If you want to allow another person to discuss your 2010 Colorado individual income tax return with the Colorado Department of Revenue, check the "Yes" box in the "Third Party Designee" area of your return. Also, enter the designee's name, phone number, and any five digits the designee chooses as his or her personal identification number (PIN).

If you check the box in the third party designee area, you and your spouse if filing a joint return, are authorizing the Colorado Department of Revenue to call the designee to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of your return. You are also authorizing the designee to:

- Give the Colorado Department of Revenue any information that is missing from your return,

- Call the Colorado Department of Revenue for information about the processing of your return or the status of your refund or payment(s),
- Receive copies of notices or transcripts related to your return, upon request, and
- Respond to Department of Revenue notices about math errors, offsets, and return preparation.

You are not authorizing the designee to receive any refund check, bind you to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent you before the Colorado Department of Revenue. If you want to expand the designee's authorization, complete form DR 0145 Power of Attorney for Department Administered Tax Matters.

The third party designee authorization will automatically end no later than the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing your 2011 tax return. This is April 17, 2012, for most people. If you or your designee wants to revoke the third party designee authorization, send a written statement of revocation to the Colorado Department of Revenue Denver, CO 80261-0005. The statement of revocation must indicate that the authority of the designee is revoked, list the tax return, and must be signed and dated by the taxpayer or designee.

Use Form DR 0900 below to submit your payment if you:

- file using NetFile,
- file using any other electronic method,
- or are, for some other reason, sending your payment separate from your return.

Be sure to round your payment to the nearest dollar. The amount on the check and the amount entered on the payment voucher must be the same. This will help maintain accuracy in your tax account.

Rather than mailing a check, you can now pay using an electronic check or credit card at www.colorado.gov/paytax

This online service includes an administrative fee that allows Colorado.gov to deliver this and other important services. This fee is paid to a third party that provides these services for Colorado.gov at little or no cost to the taxpayers of Colorado.

For credit card transactions, the administrative processing fee is the amount due multiplied by 2.25%, plus an additional $.75. However, if you choose to pay with cash in the form of an echeck, the administrative processing fee is discounted to $1.00 per transaction.

DO NOT send another copy of your tax return with your payment because the DR 0900 contains all the information required to match your payment with your return.
