{Name}, you may be eligible for a tax refund. To claim it, you have to file a 2024 tax return. See below for what to do.

Our records show that you may be eligible to receive up to thousands of dollars by claiming state and federal tax credits that help Colorado workers and families. Here are some credits you may be eligible for, depending on your household's latest income:

CREDIT	DESCRIPTION	POSSIBLE REFUND IF ELIGIBLE
Colorado Child Tax Credit	Gives money back to Colorado parents and families with children under the age of 6.	Up to $1,200 per child
Colorado Earned Income Tax Credit	Gives money back to many Colorado workers.	Up to $3,915
Family Affordability Tax Credit	Gives money back to Colorado parents and families with children under the age of 17.	Up to $3,200 per child

About these tax credits

- ➔ To receive a refund, you have to file a Colorado tax return. It's not too late to file or amend your tax returns for 2024 and prior years to get your refund.
- ➔ This is cash directly to you. You can use this extra cash however you or your family decides: groceries, rent, child care, a car, and more.
- ➔ You may be eligible for credits even if you don't have children, don't normally file taxes, haven't filed taxes for a while, or have no income from a job.
- ➔ Receiving tax credits will not affect your eligibility for other benefits, including Medicaid, Social Security, SSI, SSDI, SNAP, TANF, WIC, or housing vouchers.
