

Tobacco Distributor's Certificate for Exemption MSA/Non-Participating Manufacturer Brands

Name of Licensed Distributor

Colorado Account Number

Pursuant to 1 CCR 201-7 Regulation 39-28-202(5), the Licensed Distributor (Distributor) identified above hereby certifies that said distributor reasonably anticipates that he/she/it will for the twelve consecutive months that follow the month in which the Department receives this certification:

PLEASE CHECK APPROPRIATE BOX INDICATING THE BASIS FOR EXEMPTION

- Stamp and/or offer for sale in Colorado only those cigarettes, including roll-your-own tobacco products, manufactured by participating manufacturers to the Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement.
- Purchase stamped cigarettes, including roll-your-own tobacco, manufactured by non-participating manufacturers from Colorado licensed distributors.
- Sell at wholesale or retail in Colorado only tobacco products not subject to the Master Settlement Agreement. For example, cigars, pipe tobacco, chew, etc.

Said distributor further certifies that if, after filing this certificate with the Department, said distributor stamps and/or offers for sale in Colorado cigarettes, including roll-your-own tobacco products, of a nonparticipating manufacturer, he/she/it shall thereafter file reports with the Department as required by Regulation 39-28-202(3). Reports must begin with the month in which such sales occur and continue unless and until such distributor files another certification. The Certified Brands Directory may be accessed at www.Colorado.gov/Tax

Said distributor further certifies that he/she/it has diligently reviewed his/her/its records and, to the best of the distributor's knowledge and information, represents that this certification is true and accurate. Further, said distributor understands that violation of the department's regulations and statutes may result in the revocation of the distributor's cigarette and/or tobacco products license(s) for a period of two years.
