Part II—Declaration of Taxpayer (Taxpayer using ERO or Taxpayer who is a PC filer)

All Taxpayers

All Taxpayers are required to sign and date the DR 8453P at the time of filing. An electronically transmitted income tax return will not be considered complete and/or filed until the DR 8453P has been signed/dated by an authorized company official. Retain a copy of this form in your records for four years.

Taxpayers Using an ERO or Preparer

Taxpayers who use an ERO or tax preparer should maintain copies of all information given to them by the ERO or tax preparer for the period covered by the statute of limitations, but are not required to mail anything to the Colorado Department of Revenue at the time of filing.

Part III—Declaration of Electronic Return Originator (ERO), Preparer or Transmitter

The ERO or the preparer of the return is required to sign and date the DR 8453P at the time of filing. If the ERO is also the preparer, the check box labeled "Check if also preparer" must be checked. The ERO or preparer is also required to report their Social Security Number or preparer identification number (PTIN) in the space provided. If the taxpayer is the preparer, PART III does not need to be signed/dated.

Other Information

Colorado Statute of Limitations

The general rule for the Colorado statute of limitations is the federal statute of limitations plus one year, or four years from the federal due date of March 15.

DR 8453P on Demand by Colorado DOR

The paid preparer is also responsible for establishing and maintaining a system that allows retrieval of any particular DR 8453P and attachments by taxpayer social security number on demand by the Colorado Department Of Revenue.
