2019 Individual Income Tax Information Needed

We recently received a Colorado Individual Income Tax return for the tax period indicated above. Due to increased security concerns, we need your help to confirm this is a legitimate tax return. Review the information below and submit the requested information on the following page to validate your Colorado return.

If you submitted this Colorado tax return:

- Additional Documents are required to validate your return. Submit the documents identified on the following page.
- For information about why you may have received this letter, click the "Taxpayer Identity Verification" hyperlink at www.Colorado.gov/Tax.

If you did NOT submit this Colorado tax return:

- Your personal identity and information may have been compromised and used to file a fraudulent Colorado tax return. The Colorado Department of Revenue tax accounting system has NOT been compromised. Our Revenue Online service has NOT been compromised. The fraud perpetrators are obtaining this information through other means such as security breaches of businesses, healthcare, educational institutions, military, banking, credit, or financial databases.
- For information about Identity Theft, useful tips, and instructions on important actions to protect yourself, click the "Taxpayer Identity Verification" hyperlink at www.Colorado.gov/Tax and then click the "Taxpayer Security Awareness" hyperlink.

If you do not respond to this notice:

- Your Colorado income tax return will NOT be processed and any claimed refund amount will not be issued.

Respectfully,

Colorado Department of Revenue
