

These supplemental instructions are intended to assist retailers in the preparation of their Colorado Retail Sales Tax Returns (DR 0100) and the supporting Schedules A and B, upon which exemptions and deductions are reported. Retailers have the burden of proof to demonstrate the proper exemption of any sale upon which the retailer did not collect sales tax and must report exempt sales on the correct line(s) of Schedules A and B. See section 39-26-105(3)(a), C.R.S., and Rule 39-26-105(3) for additional information regarding the documentation of exempt sales.

This publication lists various exemptions and deductions reported on each line of Schedules A and B of the DR 0100. In general, Schedule A includes exemptions and deductions that apply to all state-administered local sales taxes and Schedule B includes exemptions that cities and counties may opt into for their state-administered sales taxes. All Colorado sales tax exemptions also apply to all special districts reported in either the RTD/CD or Special District columns of the DR 0100.

Pages 2 through 5 of this publication list various exemptions and deductions reported on each line of Schedules A and B of the DR 0100. Pages 6 through 20 provide references to additional information about each of these exemptions, including the statutory authority for the exemption or deduction, any applicable Department regulation, and any guidance published by the Department. For exemptions that are not mandatory for cities and counties, the statutory authority for the option and the letter used to represent the exemption in Department publication Colorado Sales/Use Tax Rates (DR 1002) are also listed. Department publications can be found online at Colorado.gov/Tax.

The information in this publication pertains only to state and local sales taxes administered by the Colorado Department of Revenue and does not apply to any local sales tax imposed and administered by any home-rule city in Colorado.

Exemptions and deductions are often subject to specific requirements not described in this publication. Nothing in this publication modifies or is intended to modify the requirements of Colorado's statutes and regulations. Taxpayers are encouraged to consult their tax advisors for guidance regarding specific situations.
