Note: The values presented in this table are estimates because actual values are not known. Income and taxes paid were estimated using Colorado, federal, and third party data sources. The population is limited to full-year resident Colorado households that filed 2017 state and federal income tax returns. Income includes taxable and nontaxable income as well as transfer payments (such as public assistance, supplemental security income, and nutrition assistance).

- ¹ Households estimated to have negative income are excluded from this table because we cannot estimate their taxes paid. Negative income is associated with self-employment, investment losses, and other losses.
- ² The Average represents the total taxes paid divided by the total number of income tax returns. The Average was calculated for each row by multiplying the average tax paid for each income group by the number of returns in that income group, and then summing those values together and dividing by the total number of returns.
- ³ Specific ownership taxes are local property taxes on motor vehicles.
- ⁴ The occupational privilege tax is also known as the "head" tax.

How To Use This Filing Guide

This filing guide will assist you with completing your Colorado Income Tax Return. Please read through this guide before starting your return. Once you finish the form, file it with a computer, smartphone or tablet using our free and secure Revenue Online service at Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline. You may also file using private e-File software or with a paid tax preparer. You significantly reduce the chance of errors by filing your return electronically. If you cannot file electronically for any reason, mail the enclosed forms as instructed. All Colorado forms and publications referenced in this guide are available for download at Tax.Colorado.gov, the official Taxation website.

The following symbols appear throughout this guide and point out important information, reminders and changes to tax rules.

This points out a topic that is the source of common filing errors. Filing your return on Revenue Online will reduce the risk of errors; however, it is important to understand the information on your return. Errors cause processing delays and erroneous bills.

Several subtractions and tax credits require you to provide supporting documentation. This symbol points out those requirements. If the additional documentation is not provided, it will cause processing delays or denial of the credits/subtractions. These documents can be scanned and attached to your electronic filing through Revenue Online or most tax software, mailed with the DR 1778 or included with your paper return.

In-depth tax information is available in our easy to understand guidance publications, which include examples and worksheets. This symbol lets you know when such a publication is available for a subject. All guidance publications are available in the Tax Policy and Research section at Tax.Colorado.gov.

Filing Information

Who Must File This Tax Return

Each year you must evaluate if you should file a Colorado income tax return. Generally, you must file this return if you are required to file a federal income tax return with the IRS for this year or will have a Colorado income tax liability for this year and you are:

- A full-year resident of Colorado, or
- A part-year Colorado resident who received taxable income while residing here (you must file the DR 0104 along with the DR 0104PN), or
- Not a resident of Colorado, but received income from sources within Colorado (you must file the DR 0104 along with the DR 0104PN).

Colorado residents must file this return if they are required to file an income tax return with the IRS, even if they do not have a Colorado tax liability. Otherwise, the Department may file a return on your behalf and our return might not consider your unique tax situation. Also, the only way to determine if you are entitled to a refund is to file a return.

Due Date

The DR 0104 and any tax payment owed are due April 15, 2021. Revenue Online will accept returns as timely filed until midnight. Returns that are mailed must be postmarked by April 15. An automatic extension to file is granted until October 15, but there is no extension to pay. See page 27 for more information.

Deceased Persons

Legal representatives and surviving spouses may file a return on behalf of a deceased person whose date of death was during the tax year. Surviving spouses may complete the return as usual and indicate the deceased status on the return. They can file the return and submit a copy of the death certificate through Revenue Online. Legal representatives may file the return and submit a copy of the death certificate through Revenue Online, but they must complete the Third Party Designee portion of the return. Either a surviving spouse or legal representative can avoid problems when filing on paper by marking the box next to the name of the deceased person, writing "DECEASED" in large letters in the white space above the tax year of the return, writing "FILING AS SURVIVING SPOUSE" or "FILING AS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE" after their signature, and including the DR 0102 and a copy of the death certificate with the return.

To claim a refund on behalf of a deceased person: you must submit a copy of the death certificate with the DR 0102 when filing the return.

Filing Status

You must file using the same filing status on both your federal and Colorado income tax returns. Any two individuals who legally file a joint federal income tax return must also file their Colorado income tax return jointly. Individuals filing a joint return must list the taxpayer names and Social Security numbers (SSN) in the same order on both the federal and Colorado returns. For married filing separately, do not list your spouse's name or SSN on the return.

Claiming Credits from a Pass-through Entity

Individuals claiming tax credits as a partner or shareholder must obtain from the partnership or S corporation a federal Schedule K-1 or other statement reporting the name and employer identification number (EIN) of the partnership or S corporation and the type and amount of the credit. The Colorado Department of Revenue verifies the credit claims of partners and shareholders by reviewing the partnership or S corporation's return. The Schedule K-1s or statements may be submitted through Revenue Online, through tax software or may be included with a paper return.

Line-by-Line Instructions for the DR 0104

First, complete the federal income tax return you will file with the IRS. You will use information from that return on your Colorado income tax return. Colorado income tax is based on your federal taxable income, which has already considered your deductions.

Residency Status

Mark the appropriate box to designate your residency status. If you are filing a joint return, and one person is a full-year Colorado resident and the other is either a part-year resident or a nonresident, mark the Part-Year Resident/Nonresident box.

FYI Part-Year Colorado Residents and Nonresidents

Tax is prorated so that it is calculated only on income received in Colorado or from sources within Colorado. We recommend you review Income Tax Topics: Part-Year Residents & Nonresidents if this applies to you. You will calculate your prorated tax by completing the DR 0104PN. You must submit the DR 0104PN along with the DR 0104.

Persons Traveling or Residing Abroad

If you are traveling or residing outside the United States on April 15, the deadline for filing your return is June 15, 2021. If you need additional time to file your return, you will automatically have until October 15, 2021, to file. Interest is due on any tax paid after April 15, 2021. To avoid any late payment penalties, you must pay 90% of your tax liability by April 15, 2021, file your return by October 15, 2021 and pay any remaining tax due at the time of filing. When filing your return, mark the “Abroad on Due Date” box on Revenue Online or the paper return.

FYI Active Duty Military

Under federal law, a military servicemember’s state of legal residence does not change solely as the result of the servicemember’s assignment for service in another state. Consequently, a Colorado resident who enters into military service will remain a Colorado resident unless they officially change their state of legal residence as described in DD Form 2058.

In general, military servicemembers who are Colorado residents are subject to the same income tax filing requirements as other Colorado residents, even if they are serving in another state. These requirements are described on the preceding page, under the heading “Who Must File This Tax Return.”

However, any military servicemember who spends at least 305 days of the tax year stationed outside of the United States on active military duty may elect to be treated as a nonresident. The servicemember may make this election by filing a return and checking the applicable box on Form 104PN.

Military servicemembers who are stationed in Colorado, but are not Colorado residents, are not required to pay Colorado tax on their military income. However, any other Colorado source income of a nonresident servicemember is subject to Colorado taxation.

Please see Tax.Colorado.gov/military-servicemembers for additional information.

 The residency rules described above for military servicemembers also apply generally to a servicemember’s spouse if the spouse is residing with the servicemember either inside or outside of Colorado in compliance with the servicemember’s military orders. If a servicemember and their spouse are nonresidents stationed in Colorado, any wages earned by the spouse for work performed in Colorado are not subject to Colorado taxation. The military spouse must complete a DR 1059, provide a copy to their employer when hired for employment, and submit a copy to the Department, along with a copy of their military ID card, when they file their Colorado return each year. The DR 1059 may be filed with the Department through Revenue Online, with DR 1778, or included with a DR 0104 filed by paper.

FYI Name and Address

Provide your name, mailing address, date of birth, Social Security number and the state of issue, the last four digits, and the date of issuance of your state issued ID card in the provided spaces. If filing Married Filing Jointly, provide the spouse’s information where prompted. Provide the spouse’s information ONLY if filing a joint return. Otherwise leave blank. All Departmental correspondence will be mailed to the mailing address provided. We recommend you read publication FYI General 2 for the Privacy Act Notice.

Line 1 Federal Taxable Income

Refer to your federal income tax return to complete this line:

- Form 1040 line 15

If your federal taxable income is a negative amount, be sure to enter the amount as such on your Colorado return. If submitting a paper return, put the negative amount in parentheses, for example ($1,234).

Do not enter your total income or wages on this line because it will make your tax too high. The Department will compare the amount you list here to the return you file with the IRS, so be very careful to complete this correctly.

Additions

Line 2 State Addback

Refer to your federal income tax return to complete this line. Enter $0 if you filed Form 1040 or 1040SR but did not itemize your deductions on Schedule A.

Taxpayers who deduct general sales taxes on Schedule A line 5a, Form 1040 or 1040SR, are not required to calculate this addback. If you deducted state income tax on Schedule A line 5a, complete the worksheet below to calculate the Income Tax Deduction.

FYI We recommend that you read the Individual Income Tax Guide for special instructions before completing the worksheet below.

Complete the following worksheet to determine your state income tax deduction addback.
a) Is the amount on federal Form 1040 or 1040SR Schedule A line 5d greater than the amount on federal Form 1040 or 1040SR Schedule A line 5e? <input type="checkbox"/> No. Enter the state income tax deduction from federal Form 1040 or 1040SR Schedule A line 5a. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes. Subtract the amounts on federal Form 1040 or 1040SR Schedule A lines 5b and 5c from the amount on line 5e. Enter the result, but not less than $0.	$
b) Total itemized deductions from federal Form 1040 or 1040SR Schedule A line 17	$
c) The amount of federal standard deduction you could have claimed (See instructions federal Form 1040 or 1040SR line 12 for 2020 federal standard deductions.)	$
d) Line (b) minus line (c), but not less than $0	$

Transfer to line 2 of the DR 0104 the smaller amount from line (a) or (d) of the worksheet above.

Line 3 Business Interest Expense Deduction Addback

Taxpayers who claimed a deduction for business interest under section 163 of the Internal Revenue Code are required to add to federal taxable income any additional deduction allowed as a result of the federal CARES Act (Public Law 116-136). The amount of the addition is equal to the difference (if any) between the amount the taxpayer actually claimed as a deduction on the federal return (the “amount claimed”), and the amount the taxpayer could have claimed if the CARES Act did not amend section 163(j) (the “amount allowed”). The amount claimed will normally be found on line 30 of IRS form 8890.

In general, calculating the amount allowed will require an adjustment to the applicable percentage, used in calculating line 26 of IRS form 8890, from 50% to 30%. Additionally, taxpayers who made an election under section 163(j)(10) (B) to use 2019 adjusted taxable income for taxable years beginning in 2020 must use adjusted taxable income for 2020 to calculate the amount allowed. Other special rules may apply to particular taxpayers, and taxpayers should review section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code and section 2306 of the CARES Act for further information.

Line 4 Excess Business Loss Addback

Taxpayers with losses from a trade or business are required to add to federal taxable income any excess business loss, as determined under section 461(l) of the Internal Revenue Code, as if the limitation established by such section was not suspended by the federal CARES Act (Public Law 116-136). Taxpayers are required to compute and add back any excess business loss disregarding the changes made by section 2304 of the CARES Act except the change made by section 2304(b)(2)(B). Section 2304(b)(2)(B) specified that the excess business loss is determined without regard to any deductions, gross income, or gains attributable to any trade or business of performing services as an employee. For example, in calculating excess business loss, wages and unemployment compensation are not included in a taxpayer’s aggregate gross income or gain for the taxable year which is attributable to such trades or businesses.

In general, a taxpayer must add to federal taxable income the excess (if any) of:

- (a) the aggregate federal deductions of the taxpayer for the taxable year which are attributable to trades or businesses of such taxpayer, over
- (b) the sum of:
 - (i) the aggregate gross income or gain of such taxpayer which is attributable to such trades or businesses, plus
 - (ii) $259,000.

Again, such excess is determined without regard to any deductions, gross income, or gains attributable to any trade or business of performing services as an employee. The amount of aggregate federal deductions should take into account any reductions to the allowable business interest deduction resulting from the addition required on line 3, above.

Other special rules may apply to particular taxpayers, and taxpayers should review section 461(l) of the Internal Revenue Code and section 2304 of the CARES Act for further information.

Line 5 Net Operating Loss Addback:

Taxpayers who claimed a net operating loss deduction under section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code are required to add to federal taxable income any additional deduction allowed as a result of the federal CARES Act (Public Law 116-136). The amount of the addition is equal to the difference (if any) between the amount the taxpayer actually claimed on the federal return (the “amount claimed”), and the amount the taxpayer could have claimed if the CARES Act did not amend section 172 (the “amount allowed”). The amount claimed will normally be the net operating loss deduction entered on schedule 1, line 8 of IRS forms 1040 and 1040-SR. In general, the amount allowed is computed by reducing that portion of the deduction for net operating losses arising in taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017 to the extent such losses exceed 80% of taxable income (computed without regard to the deduction under section 172). For the purpose of this calculation, taxable income is reduced by any deductions allowed under sections 199A and 250 of the Internal Revenue Code. Federal taxable income should take into account any reductions to the allowable business interest deduction resulting from the addition required on line 3, above, and to allowable business losses resulting from the addition required on line 4, above. Any required addition calculated for line 5 should be reduced by any addition reported on line 6 for a non-Colorado net operating loss deduction.

Other special rules may apply to particular taxpayers, and taxpayers should review section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code and section 2303 of the CARES Act for further information.

Line 6 Other Additions

Enter the sum of the following and specify which addition(s) in text box:

- FYI • Bond interest—the amount of any interest earned from bonds issued by any state or political subdivision, excluding any bonds issued by the State of Colorado or its political subdivisions on or after May 1, 1980. Calculate the appropriate amount by subtracting the amortization of bond premiums and expenses (required to be allocated to interest income by Internal Revenue Code) from the gross amount of state and local bond interest. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 52 if this applies to you.
- Improper distributions from a qualified state tuition program for which tuition program contribution subtraction was previously claimed. See FYI Income 44 for additional information.
- Charitable gross conservation easement—the amount of your federal charitable deduction for a conservation easement that is also claimed for a Colorado tax credit. Complete the DR 1305 Part D.

FYI • Alien labor—the amount of expenses for unauthorized alien labor services. We recommend that you read the Individual Income Tax Guide if this applies to you.

- Partnership/Fiduciary—the amount of any fiduciary adjustment or partnership modification that increases your federal taxable income.
- Any expenses incurred by a taxpayer with respect to expenditures made at, or payments made to, a club that restricts membership on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, marital status, race, creed, religion, color, ancestry or national origin.
- Distributions from a medical savings account not made for an eligible expense.
- Charitable hunger relief credit addback—the amount of your federal charitable deduction for a donation for which a Credit for Food Contributed to Hunger-Relief Charitable Organizations is claimed.

Line 8 Subtractions from the DR 0104AD Schedule, line 20

These subtractions will change your Colorado Taxable Income from the amount of Federal Taxable Income. See instructions in the income tax booklet for additional guidance on completing this schedule. Do not enter negative amounts. To ensure faster processing of your paper return, the amount entered on line 8 must exactly match the amount on the DR 0104AD. You must submit the DR 0104AD with your return.

Line 9 Colorado Taxable Income

Subtract line 8 from line 7. This is your Colorado taxable income and is the figure used to determine how much Colorado tax is owed, if any.

Part-Year Residents or Nonresidents Go To the DR 0104PN. Full-Year Residents Continue To Line 10

Instructions for Select Credits from the DR 0104CR

Line 1 Child Care Expenses Credit (DR 0347 and DR 0104CR Part I)

Even when the federal tax is zero, Colorado offers taxpayers—with an Adjusted Gross Income of $25,000 or less—a Colorado income tax credit of 25 percent of their child care expenses up to $500 for one child, or up to $1,000 for two or more children. Use form DR 0347 to calculate this credit and submit it along with the form DR 0104CR.

Lines 2 through 5 To Calculate the Colorado Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) for SSN Filers on DR 0104CR:

Line 2 Enter the amount of earned income calculated for your federal return.

In order to calculate the value of your Federal earned income tax credit, you must determine the amount of earned income. You may use the Earned Income Credit Worksheet (EIC Worksheet) and the Earned Income Credit (EIC) Table in the instruction booklet for Federal Form 1040 or 1040SR or use the EITC Assistant Tool online: IRS.gov/Credits-&-Deductions/Individuals/Earned-Income-Tax-Credit/Use-the-EITC-Assistant. It is available in both English and Spanish.

Line 3 The federal EITC you claimed

Refer to the credit you entered on the Federal Form 1040.

- Enter the amount of line 27 from Federal Form 1040 or 1040SR on the Colorado Form DR 0104CR line 3.

Table Instructions: If you have a qualifying child and you claimed the EITC on the Federal 1040 or 1040SR, you will need to identify that child or those children in this table. Enter each qualifying child's last name, first name, year of birth and Social Security number. Only check the "Deceased" box for a qualifying child if the child was born and died in 2020 and was not assigned an SSN, you must submit a copy of the child's birth certificate, death certificate, or hospital records showing a live birth with your return.

Line 4 COEITC

Multiply the amount you entered on line 3 by 0.1 to calculate your Colorado EITC.

Line 5 If you are filing as a part-year resident ONLY

Multiply the amount you entered on line 4 by the percentage on the DR 0104PN line 34. (If the percentage exceeds 100%, use 100%.) Enter the result on line 5. This is the portion of the Colorado EITC you are allowed.

Line 6 Business Personal Property Credit for Individual Business Owners

The income tax credit for business personal property taxes is limited to $18,000 of the actual value of your personal property that you paid tax on during 2020. This is different than real property, which is not eligible for this credit. If your actual value is less than $18,000, you can claim the total amount of the assessment you paid, and you must include the assessor's statement(s) for which you are claiming the credit. To find your actual value, either look for it on your statement, or find your assessed value and divide it by 0.29.

$$\text{Actual Value} = \text{Assessed Value} / 0.29.$$

If you own personal property whose actual value is above $18,000 for which you were assessed, you can only claim the assessment on the first $18,000 of the property in question. You will need to prorate your assessment with the following formula:

$$\frac{18,000}{\text{actual value}} * \text{assessment} = \text{allowable credit}$$

For example, if your assessment was $2,000 for personal property tax paid in 2020, but your actual value was $25,000, you would be permitted to claim $1,440 (72% of the tax assessed or $($18,000 / $25,000) * $2,000$).

Please include a copy of your property tax statement for property tax paid in 2020.

2020 Consumer Use Tax Reporting Schedule

Use this schedule to report consumer use tax due. This is one of three methods of filing to pay a consumer use liability. You may also use Revenue Online or file a DR 0252, Consumer Use Tax Return. See instructions or more information on how to file.

What is Consumer Use Tax?

Individuals and businesses are required to pay sales or use tax on tangible personal property purchased from vendors if the item is sold, leased, or delivered in Colorado for use, storage, or consumption within the state.

For more information on your consumer use tax obligation, including how to use the annual customer reports from non-collecting retailers, please visit Tax.Colorado.gov/Consumer-Use-Tax

Special Districts also assess a use tax. More than half of Colorado residents live in one or more of these districts. The special districts that assess use tax and the applicable tax rates can be found at <https://Colorado.TTR.Services>.
